Ah, Spring?

By Andree A. Belisle

MILLBURY - Ah, Spring! The blush of renewed growth spreading across the earth as the dull grey of winter is replaced by the burgeoning fields and forests.

Ah, Spring! Roadside traffic increasing, with bike riders and joggers sporting tulip colored jogging suits.

Ah, Spring! Windows and doors thrown open to replace the stagnant air of Winter.

Ah, Spring! But wait...the blush of renewed growth...that jogger...that open door...can it be? Yes, that's a thief throwing open the door, running down the street in a stolen jogging suit, his face flushed from the exertion of trying to escape with your TV set.

Ah, Spring! The housebreak season!

Sutton voters to deal with 44 article warrant

By Alec G. Belisle

SUTTON - Sutton voters will take action on an FY '93 budget at the May 4 town meeting. The budget total has yet to be finalized. The following articles will be included on the Warrant:

Article 8 seeks $20,000 to paint the Town Hall.

Article 10 seeks funds to pay unpaid bills from previous years. This year, there is a $350 bill from the Douglas marching band which performed at the Memorial Day celebration in 1991.

Article 11 will allow Town boards and Committees to establish fees at any level depending on the cost of the service provided by that fee. Town Administrator Dexter Blois said the town cannot go beyond the cost of service because then paying taxes becomes an issue.

Article 14 seeks $100,000 for normal, routine road maintenance.

Article 15 asks voters for $12,000 for new radios. Blois explained that right now, Sutton is on the county radio band for the fire department. The county is starting a mutual aid system and will use that band only for mutual aid. As a result, the fire chief will have to have his own frequency.

Article 16 comes from the Capital Expenditure Report to allocate $103,000 for such items as a new police cruiser, fire department gear, two highway department trucks, armor vests for the police department (one-third of the officers get new vests each year rather than replace them all at once.)

Articles 17-22 request acceptance of the roads in the Pine Ridge subdivision: Wachusett Drive, Aspen Way, Dudley Lane, Okemo Ridge Road, Fox Run Road, and Attitash Avenue.

Article 23 is a $695 request from the Cable Access Committee to use the money the town receives in license fees to purchase equipment. The committee is looking to purchase a signal mixer.

Article 24 will allow the Historical Commission to begin gathering information to print Sutton History vol. III.

Article 25 is a request for $5,600 from the library for new equipment and furniture for the new addition. This is the third article of a three year program.

Article 26 seeks $3,500 to replace two doors at the Manchaug library. According to Blois, this is part of routine maintenance. The doors are of an odd size and have to be custom made to be fireproof, with panic hardware and shatterproof glass.

Article 27 is to accept Beechwood Drive, a small subdivision road off Dudley Road.

Article 28 is to allocate $200,000 to expand the landfill should that be the recommendation of the Solid Waste Committee.

Article 29 seeks to allocate $37,500 to replace half of the carpeting at the Elementary School. The school is approximately 18 years old and still has the original carpeting.

Articles 30, 31, 32, and 33, from the Planning Board, deal with amendments to the zoning by-laws: Article 30 would allow for racetracks for dogs, horses, or autos in a B1, B2 or OLI district with a special permit from the Board of Selectmen; Article 31 would strike from the zoning by-laws, the provision that allows use variances; Article 32 spells out the time frame within which the planning board must act on site plan applications. Presently there is no time frame; Article 33 spells out an appeal process for a site plan which is not granted. There is no appeal process at the moment.

Article 34 looks for $20,000 for a salt storage shed for the Highway department.

Students Prepare for National Meet

MILLBURY - Students from the junior class at Millbury High School will be participating in the National Bicentennial Competition on the Constitution and Bill of Rights in Washington, D.C. in April. The student scholars will represent Massachusetts, appearing as expert witnesses on constitutional issues. According to MHS History Teacher Roger Desrosiers, "The students, having had the opportunity to experience the Constitution and Bill of Rights as it applies to today, will never be able to read a newspaper or magazine or watch a news program in the same way. This new perspective will last their lifetime as they grow into full-fledged, informed citizens."

In preparation for the competition, students studied an intensive 12-week curriculum on the Bill of Rights entitled, With Liberty and Justice for All. The questions asked by the judges in this rigorous academic program require high level analytical skills and the application of constitutional law and theory to contemporary situations. The six topics covered in a special Bicentennial course offered on the Constitution to the Millbury High School juniors were studied by the following students: Sarah Auciello, Christine Borgman, Amy Credit, Shawna Coons, Melissa Diguette, Danielle Dubuque, Brian Faucher, Cheryl Godbout, Charlie Marble, Helen Murray, Laura Nielsen, Kevin Pease, Michael Pousland, Stacey Risotti, Kevin Sarsfield, Todd Sjolander, Matt Tella, Keith Wilkinson.

We The People

Clarification

To the Editor:

In a letter to the Chronicle last week, I indicated that our two top school officials were receiving pay raises at a time when all town departments were asked to reduce their budgets by six percent.

The Superintendent of Schools called my house, after reading my letter, to let me know that, although his salary will be increased by $4,500 to $75,100, his assistant is not scheduled to receive a raise this year. The Assistant Superintendent is budgeted to receive $58,450 as he did last year. This year, only $48,450 will come from the Administration account.

The figures presented at the budget hearing were not clearly defined, as my previous letter indicated.

Barbara A. Tuttle

Endorsement

To the Editor:

I urge the voters of Sutton to elect Carl Hutchinson to the Board of Selectmen on April 25. He has served on the Finance Committee and other town boards for the past 9 years. As chairman of the Finance Committee he spent many hours producing a balanced budget within Prop. 2 1/2.

His concerns have been for the needs of the town. Carl will make decisions based on careful deliberation, knowledge and respect for the citizens of Sutton. For these reasons I find him to be the most experienced candidate.

Brian K. Bailey
Sutton

Endorsement

To the Editor:

In announcing her candidacy for election to the Millbury School Committee, Barbara Tuttle stated as her primary concerns, the children and the taxpayers of Millbury. Her call for educational reform reflects the widespread belief that the current system is flawed, in that, while it has become increasingly costly, it has not resulted in a better product. Namely, students better equipped to compete or perhaps even cope with the challenges they will surely face.

Her "back to basics," common sense, fiscally responsible approach would, I believe, contribute greatly both to the youth and the taxpayers of Millbury. As you cast your vote for School Committee, please consider Barbara Tuttle.

Catherine Marchand
Millbury

Endorsement

To the Editor:

As a former selectman, I would like to recommend that the voters of Sutton elect Carl Hutchinson to the Board of Selectmen on April 25, 1992.

Carl has been a volunteer in local government for the past 9 years. He did a good job as chairman of the Finance Committee while I was a selectman and has served the town well on a number of other boards. He is the most experienced candidate in this year's selectman race.

I know that he will work very hard to see that town government serves the residents of Sutton as conscientiously and efficiently as possible. He has my complete confidence and support.

I hope the voters of Sutton will elect Carl Hutchinson as our next Selectman.

Joseph A. (Tony) Auger

PLEASE NOTE:

The Millbury-Sutton Chronicle is no longer accepting candidate announcements for the Millbury and Sutton town elections. In addition, we are no longer accepting letters to the editor in favor of or in opposition to any candidate or issue coming up for a vote in either election.

Another Point of View

One Problem.....Two Solutions

By Lawrence Moore

At this critical time in our history, there is nationwide agreement only on the recognition of a serious problem of overwhelming and potentially disastrous proportions: The Government of the United States cannot continue on its present course.

The elements of our national deterioration are easily and profusely described: drugs, education, pollution, taxes, budget, deficit, entitlement, on and on. As the candidate castigates the incumbent, the critic allocates blame. Bravely, the honey-mouth bemoans, berates, and proposes solutions. More insidious, many of the solutions solve one aspect of the total problem and make other aspects worse.

This past week, Warren Rudman, of Gramm-Rudman-Hollings fame, cried on America's shoulder as he announced his decision to retire from the U.S. Senate. While praising the Presidents under whom he served and lauding his colleagues in the Senate, he two-facedly criticized their unwillingness to do that which is needed to correct the growing national debacle. He proposed a solution, gloomy though he characterized it.

Warning that we are governed by a "political class," he saw us victimized by incumbents whose decisions were self-perpetuating or, (and he named Bush) by people who wanted to be elected President but didn't want to BE President. His solution was to propose the reduction of entitlements, an increase in people's "sacrifice," and the patience to wait until Bush, in his second term, tackled the tough jobs. He didn't say what would replace the entitlement moneys, what should be done to stop the downtrend of national prosperity, or how to restore the jobs that feed our families. With those views, his decision to retire was a wise one.

This past week, Ross Perot, a dynamic, blunt, and successful internationally-known business innovator, speaking at the National Press Club in Washington, catalogued the identical problems. His point-of-view was diametrically opposed to that of Rudman, and to those of incumbents. He espoused the old-fashioned notion that it was the job of Government to serve the people rather than the job of the people to support a bloated Government. He listed hundreds of millions of dollars, department after department, that could be saved by applying good business principles. For example, while Rudman called Entitlements a Budget-Buster, Perot blasted the cost of the bureaucracy that feeds off the entitlement programs.

This week, the Editor of Fortune predicted a surge in industrial profits beginning with the second quarter. Regardless of recession or recovery, he said the downsizing, reorganization, restructuring and mergers that have taken place would insure improved performance.

Downsizing, reorganizing and restructuring the business of Government is exactly what Perot says he would do if elected President, and "profit" to the nation would inevitably follow. He would copy and/or initiate programs that would revitalize and rebuild industrial America so that we could regain our preeminence in the global economy, and yes, so that we could support whatever entitlements the well-being of our people requires.

If drafted in all 50 States, Perot would spend his own money on an independent campaign for President. He is electable, capable, and strong enough to do what needs to be done, and what will not be done if Bush is reelected. Keep your eyes and ears open, learn more about this legendary man, and make your own decision.

Millbury Selectmen's Meeting Digest

Town Files for Dismissal of Paul Revere Lawsuit

By Edward J. Cooney

MILLBURY - The Selectmen's March 24 meeting convened at its usual time with minutes approved for March 3. Chairman Jude Cristo reviewed dates to remember and moved on to Administrator Earl Chase's weekly report.

Health Insurance

Elizabeth Maloney, a member of the Town's Insurance Advisory Committee, was present. She has been working as an advocate for the elderly who sought acceptance of a state statute that would allow the town to pay a portion of the health premium costs to the surviving spouse of a retired town employee. The statute was accepted at the Special Town Meeting held in September.

Chase said the statute provides for the town to pick up 50% of the premium costs. He said he felt the Board should vote on taking action on the vote of the town meeting. He also said that the statute does not specifically say the Board of Selectmen must take a vote.

Maloney took exception to the suggestion that the town only has to pay 50% of the cost.

Chase replied that the statute says 50%.

Maloney said the town voted in 1975 to pay 75% of employee health premium costs. She also asked why there has been a delay in implementing the statute since it was accepted last September. "I have been down here to Mr. Chase several times and nothing has been done," she said. She also said people should be notified that the town may only pay 50% of the premiums.

The Board took no action on Chase's recommendation to vote to accept the statute until the issues raised are clarified by town counsel.

Light Relocation

The board met with Randolph Mogren of Gould Street, who was present to request that a street light on Gould Street be moved from its present location to another pole located nearer to an apartment complex at the corner of West Main and Gould. He argued that seven people live in the complex which has five garage stalls bordering Gould. Mogren said the street light would provide needed illumination of that area. He also said the new location would serve more people than at its present location in front of the Pickett house on Gould Street.

Selectman Gerry Bleau asked if anyone else has made a request for the light location.

Chase said the Picketts want it to remain where it is.

Bleau remarked that a street light is supposed to illuminate the roadway and not private property. He said a light can be purchased by the owners of the property for that purpose.

On a motion by Selectman Roland Lachance, the board approved moving the light on a 4-1 vote with Gauthier opposed.

Miscellaneous

- The WRTA has indicated that they will not be reducing any bus runs to and from Millbury but may have to make some changes in schedules.

- Lieutenant Flynn, of the Worcester County Jail, has indicated that as soon as the weather improves, he will have prisoners available to lay the bluestone at the Asa Waters Mansion.

- The Board met with the Memorial Day Committee to review plans for the upcoming Memorial Day parade and church services. Veterans Agent Phil Buso, acting as spokesman for the committee, said the ceremonies will follow the same format as last year with the V.F.W. in charge of the parade. The location for the church services will be announced later.

- Cristo asked Chase if there has been any notification from the School Committee concerning the vacancy on the Committee created by the resignation of Ed Wilczynski. Chase said he has not as yet been notified. The seat was vacated by Wilczynski as of March 27. The School Committee has 30 days from that date to notify the Board of Selectmen. If not notified, at the expiration of 30 days the Board of Selectmen has to make an appointment within a seven day period.

- Lachance asked that a letter be drafted to the State D.P.W. requesting that they paint a stop sign on the road surface at the end of the ramp coming off Rte 146 onto Elm Street. He said that large tankers and trash haulers are coming off the ramp and rolling beyond the stop sign which has created some near misses with vehicles traveling on Elm Street. Police Chief Handfield, who was present, also was asked to see about increased enforcement at that stop sign.

- Cristo suggested that Chase contact Wheelabrator regarding trash haulers coming through the center of town. Bleau noted that Wheelabrator had indicated in the past that no trash haulers were to do so.

High Street Wall

A letter was received from Ralph Brooks, informing the Board that a wall that abuts High Street is continuing to show deterioration. He said he fears for the safety of the children in the area. The Selectmen were made aware of the problem last year. The wall is owned by the town. Chase said the Highway Surveyor will look at shoring up the wall. Brooks cautioned that if the wall goes, so will a portion of High Street.

Home Rule Charter

The board met with Wayne Sclar, Bob Brainard, and Terry Hamilton concerning procedures for printing a booklet to explain the Home Rule Charter that is being resubmitted for this year's town election ballot. Sclar noted the hard work accomplished by Bob Brainard in obtaining 600 of the 800 signatures on the petition to place the question on the ballot. He asked the Board to support the Charter and to arrange for a public hearing.

Cristo noted that the backers of the Charter will have to be responsible for running the meeting.

The Board approved seeking a transfer of funds to pay to print the booklet and voted to establish April 16 as the date for a public hearing at the High School.

Paul Revere

Before going into executive session with Town Counsel John Giorgio, Hartford Insurance Attorney Frank Buendo, Town Treasurer Dave Cofsky, and The Sewer Commissioners to discuss litigation strategy relating to the Paul Revere Condominium Association's suit against the Town, Cristo recognized Sarah Lilley, President of the Association.

Lilley told the board that she had heard that the town is filing for dismissal of the Association's lawsuit. She said the information was relayed to her by the association's attorney, Dave Kneeland. Lilley said Kneeland told her that Jim Fitzpatrick, chairman of the Planning Board when the special permit for the condominiums was issued, called his office and said he would not be going in to give a deposition because Earl Chase told him that the town will be filing to have the suit dismissed.

Lilley questioned: 1. whether the information was correct; 2. if the matter was discussed in executive session; and, 3. what right Chase had to provide Fitzpatrick with privileged information.

Cristo turned to Attorney Giorgio and asked if he would like to respond.

Giorgio replied that he would rather have Attorney Buendo answer the question.

Cristo asked Chase to go out in the corridor and ask Buendo if he would like to address the question.

Chase returned and said Buendo did not want to respond.

Cristo told Lilley that maybe Kneeland should contact Buendo.

Lilley responded that if Buendo doesn't want to answer the question, "Then I would like to know why the Administrative Assistant, Mr. Chase, can discuss that issue with Jim Fitzpatrick who isn't a public official?"

Cristo replied, "I don't know." He turned to Chase and asked him if he could answer Lilley.

Chase said he couldn't recall if he had discussed the issue with Fitzpatrick.

Lachance asked Mrs. Lilley, "Are you represented by counsel here tonight?"

Lilley replied, "No, I'm not! However, Attorney Kneeland did advise me that depositions were scheduled for yesterday and today. Those were canceled."

Both Fitzpatrick and former Board of Health Chairman and Building Inspector Frank Piscitelli were scheduled to give depositions.

Cristo said he didn't know what transpired between Chase and Fitzpatrick.

Lilley replied, "Well, Earl is here!"

Chase began, "I'm aware...," and was cut off by Cristo who said "I'm not going to get into this!"

Lilley replied she was not asking him to.

Lachance, visibly agitated, said, "Can we get on with the meeting here? We have an executive session scheduled here for 8:15 and we are past that time right now."

Lilley again noted that no one was answering her question.

"Counsel is not answering your question," Cristo replied. "I think your counsel should contact Mr. Buendo on that issue. That seems appropriate."

Lilley said, "What is appropriate? What I'm asking is..." Cristo interrupted, and said it was a litigation issue. "I am not answering the question because the counsel doesn't want to answer the question," he said. "All I'm saying to you is probably the best way to handle that particular part of it is to have your counsel contact Mr. Buendo. I'm not going to answer for the counsel if he does not want to answer that question."

Lilley replied, "then obviously that is something that has been discussed in executive session."

Cristo said, "I'm not going to discuss anything we have discussed in executive session. At this point in time I am going to have to cut you off tonight because we want to get into this executive session and have some discussion about some of the other issues."

Cristo entertained a motion to move to executive session, which was approved unanimously on a roll call vote.

Contacted the next day, Chase was asked to expand on his statement that he could not recall what he said to Fitzpatrick. Chase said he remembered talking to Fitzpatrick, but does not specifically remember talking to him about the town filing in court for dismissal of the lawsuit. He did say that is an option for the town as would a settlement be if that was the decision of the town through its counsel.

When asked if the town were to file for dismissal, would that information be made public, Chase replied that it would be up to the Board of Selectmen and that he could not discuss anything that went on in executive session.

[The Chronicle has learned that the Town did in fact file a motion for dismissal of the Association's lawsuit on March 24. The motion will be heard April 8 at 2:00 p.m. in Worcester Housing Court.]

BEACON HILL ROLL CALL

BOSTON - This week's "Beacon Hill Roll Call" records the votes of Senator Matthew Amorello (R-Grafton) and Representatives Richard Moore (D-Uxbridge) and Paul Kollios (D-Millbury) on roll calls from the week of March 23-27.

THE HOUSE

FEDERAL SPENDING (H 5149, H 5355) - House 91-49, substituted different resolutions for the ones urging Congress to transfer a savings from defense budget cuts to the domestic budget. The substitute resolutions call for the funds to be transferred to the army air and national guard. Supporters of the "domestic" resolutions argued increased federal aid is necessary to help the state's social and economic needs including human services, education, homelessness and local aid. Supporters of the "guard" resolution said these will help the state's 260,000 defense related workers and prevent defense cuts from hurting the Massachusetts economy. They noted the guard provides disaster assistance, food to the needy, and drug enforcement services. Moore did not vote and Kollios voted for the "domestic" resolution.

UNEMPLOYMENT (H 5379) - House 110-40, approved the conference committee version of the bill hiking the unemployment insurance taxes paid by employers by 30%. This would hike the average payment from $363 per employee per year to $474 through 1993 and to $680 in 1984. Supporters said this will bail out the state's unemployment trust fund deficit which could climb to $900 million by year's end. They noted the state is currently borrowing $5 million daily from the federal government to pay benefits. Opponents said this is a tax hike which will hurt businesses and force them out of the state. Moore and Kollios voted for the bill.

THE SENATE

COLA (H 5260) - Senate 31-2, approved an emergency preamble to the bill providing a 5% cost of living adjustment, retroactive to January 1, for retired state, county and municipal employees. The bill sets a $450 cap for individuals and provides that the money come from the state's pension reserve fund. The preamble would have the bill take effect immediately. Preamble supporters said these 75,000 employees are entitled to have this hike take effect immediately. Some opponents said the money should come from the general fund in order to prevent the hike from adding to the state's $1 billion unfunded pension liability. Others said the Senate should not act on the measure but use it as leverage to get the House to act on the early retirement bill. Amorello voted for the emergency preamble.

LEGAL ASSISTANCE (S 1465) - Senate 27-8, approved a supplemental budget amendment providing $90,697 to the Massachusetts Legal Assistance Corporation (MLAC) for operation of the asylum representation project. Amendment supporters said this restores some of the money taken out of the MLAC budget and will help many people including indigents. Opponents offered no argument. Amorello voted for the $90,697.

DESERT STORM (S 1465) - Senate 26-9, rejected an amendment providing $94,554 to pay the debts of Massachusetts Homecoming Incorporated for its Stand Tall for America Day last July in Taunton. Amendment supporters said rain hurt the finances of the event and put the group into debt. They said the state should pick up the tab for this day which officially welcomed home all Massachusetts residents who served in Desert Storm. Opponents said the state cannot afford the money and should not set a precedent of paying the debts of a non-profit group in Taunton. Amorello voted for the $94,554.

Historical Societies to Host Dramatic Production

MILLBURY - The Millbury Historical Society will hold a joint meeting with historical societies from other southern Worcester County towns, including Sutton, on Friday, April 10, at 7:30 p.m. at St. Brigid's Church Hall. The public is invited.

Robin Lane, of Robin Lane Productions of Boston, will present "Ladies First" a one-woman dramatic production. Lane, who is a direct descendant of Abigail Adams, wife of John Adams (2nd President) and mother of John Quincy Adams (6th President), portrays five of America's first ladies: dignified Jackie Kennedy, strong-willed Eleanor Roosevelt, compulsive Mary Lincoln, regal Julia Tyler, and defiant Rachel Jackson.

From My Window on Farnsworth Court

By "Pastor Rae" Cameron

Slowly I am getting back into the ministry that God has called me to here in Millbury. Again, many thanks for your prayers, cards, calls, and concerns. My hair is coming back little by little, and I even had it cut so it wouldn't be too straggly. I will also have to begin to shave again.

Another minister's meeting was on my agenda last week, this time it was with my colleagues of the Central Baptist Association. The program consisted of representatives from LIFEHOUSE. "The LIFEHOUSE is a community sponsored non-profit center dedicated to providing a warm supportive environment for all people affected by HIV/AIDS. Lifehouse provides daytime activities to stimulate the mind and feed the soul. It's a place to read, relax and rest. A place to stop by for a cup of coffee or to come for companionship. In these days when people with HIV/AIDS are living longer, it's their aim to help them live life to its fullest."

There were two ladies and a young man there. One of the ladies was a pastor who has taken on this burden for people with HIV/AIDS. The other lady is a layperson who shares this burden. The young man was one who has HIV. Eleven years ago he was given one year to live, but with good health practices, proper exercise, and the grace of God, he is still very much alive.

Here is another example of the wonder of our free-enterprise system and of God's providential care. Our government does need to invest our tax dollars for research into this epidemic, but we also need this kind of local and personal care. Amen.

SCHOOL BUILDING (S 1465) - Senate 19-16, rejected an amendment providing $5.3 million for grants and reimbursements to city, town and regional school districts by the school building assistance program. Amendment supporters argued many communities have been waiting a long time for this money and said many school buildings are in need of repairs. Opponents said the state cannot afford this additional money and noted the budget already includes $6.2 million to help schools with the most serious structural problems which jeopardize safety. Amorello voted for the $5.3 million.

Kourey Running for School Committee

SUTTON - Victor Kourey, of Maple Lane, has announced his candidacy for a seat on the Sutton School Committee. "I have lived in Sutton for 17 years, and have watched this town change," Kourey said. "New demands are being made upon the school system that go beyond our new school buildings. I agree with Superintendent Spence's view regarding financial realities, when he said, 'I don't see any tremendous amounts of money coming into Sutton from the State. There are a lot of things that can be done that do not cost [money].' (Millbury-Sutton Chronicle, January 23, 1992.) The Sutton School System can be one of the best in the region if everyone concerned with education takes an active roll."

Kourey said he strongly favors:

- establishing a coordinated curriculum that builds a foundation, grade by grade, in the major subjects of Math, English, Science, Social Studies and Foreign Languages;
- a system of accountability to measure the effectiveness of the administration in executing the curriculum;
- fiscal accountability and a formal method of personnel evaluation;
- creation of a Parent's Advisory Council to work with the administration of the schools at all grade levels.

"I truly feel I can make a significant contribution to the improvement of Sutton Schools," he said. "This is not the naive view of an outsider. I have a Masters Degree in Education from Worcester State College. Years ago, I taught physics and chemistry in the public schools. However, my primary point of view is that of a parent: I have two children in Sutton schools. With the youngest in third grade, my commitment to improving the Sutton School System is long term."

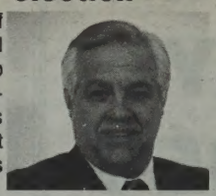
Donovan Seeks Re-election

MILLBURY - Robert A. Donovan is seeking re-election to the Board of Cemetery Commissioners. He has served as Superintendent, Chairman, and Grounds Keeper for the past 20 years. He has also served on the Millbury Board of Housing and as Chairman of the former Welfare Board.

In making his announcement, Donovan said he is "an advocate in the acquisition and development of land to expand and alleviate Central Cemetery's growing shortage of burial lots.

A lifelong resident of Millbury, Donovan and his wife, Jeanette, live at 3 Hamilton Street.

Bleau Seeks Re-election



MILLBURY - Gerald J. Bleau, of 17 Carleton Road, has announced his candidacy for re-election to the Board of Selectmen. A lifelong resident of Millbury, he has served on the board for the past three years, and is currently its clerk.

He is a member of the Capital Budget Committee and has also been active on the Finance Committee, serving as its chairman for several years, the Solid Waste Advisory Committee, the Charter Study Committee, and the Charter Commission.

A graduate of Millbury High School, Bleau received a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Massachusetts and a master's degree in business administration from Anna Maria College.

Bleau is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the American Legion, the National Association of Public Accountants, and the National Association of Enrolled Agents.

In making his announcement, Bleau said he feels Millbury continues to face major challenges which, if managed properly, could be of great advantage to the town. "These include the proposed Route 146 interchange, promoting economic growth, including the siting of a new industrial park, and changes in the way governmental services are provided in light of our current fiscal problems. I share the continued concern over our community's financial problems," he said, "and as a member of the board, I have proposed innovative measures to deal with them. Among my priorities are improvement in services to the elderly and youth, maintaining tight fiscal control, and as I have demonstrated, a commitment to maintaining the integrity of our neighborhoods."

Bleau and his wife, the former Regina May, have two children, Matthew and Jessica.

Snyder Seeking School Committee Seat

SUTTON - Alison D. Snyder, of 10 Skye Line Drive, has announced her candidacy for one of the school committee seats available in Sutton's April 25 election. Snyder has served on the PTA fundraising committee and assisted with editing "Chalk Talk" and in the kindergarten centers program. She volunteers in the elementary library as a parent worker and as a special storyteller. She has also taught Sunday school, directed a religious education program, and acted as religious education committee chairwoman.

As a school committee member, Snyder said she would offer a wealth of educational background and experience. She received degrees in both elementary education and reading/language arts education at Penn State University. Her professional positions have included elementary classroom teacher, reading specialist at elementary and junior high levels, and faculty member of a community college. While employed at Lehigh County Community College in Pennsylvania as a learning specialist under a grant for academically under-prepared students, she participated in a two year accreditation process and was a member of the curriculum development and review committee.

Snyder said she has a philosophical as well as personal interest in being a member of the school committee: "Any public school system, regardless of size, is capable of providing high quality education to the children of its community. My two children will be educated by the Sutton school system because of this belief," she said. "As a member of the school committee, I would strive to make fair decisions utilizing the available resources to insure quality education for all of our students."

Candidate for Millbury School Committee

MILLBURY - Stephen D. Widen, of 41 Dolan Road, has announced his candidacy for the Millbury School Committee. A resident of Millbury for the last seven years, he is employed as a Program Director at WorkGroup Technologies, Inc., a computer industry market research and consulting company in Hampton, New Hampshire.

Widen received a B.S. in Secondary Education and an MEd in Adult Education, both from Worcester State College. In addition, he received a Graduate Certificate in Training and Human Resource Development from the same college.

He is a Veteran of the U.S. Army, 1969-1971 Neuropsychiatric Specialist. He is a Millbury Youth League coach in soccer, basketball, and softball.

In announcing his candidacy, Widen said his goal is to ensure that all students in the Millbury Public Schools have an equal opportunity to obtain the best possible education. "It is paramount that the quality of education in the Millbury Public Schools continues to move in a positive direction in light of tight fiscal budgets," he said. "This can be achieved by taking full advantage of the educational resources available to the Millbury schools. My qualifications and experience in education and business provide me with the necessary skills and competencies to meet any challenges that may confront the Millbury Public Schools."

Widen is married to the former Carol A. McKenney, a long time resident of Millbury. The couple has one daughter and two sons.

Article 35 seeks $4,500,000 and, according to Blois, it is to make the voters aware that the Manchaug Sewer system is coming down the line. The system design is almost 95% finished. This article would allow the town to go to the bidding phase.

Article 36 seeks $22,000 to improve recreation areas, of which $10,000 is to go to Hough Road and $12,000 to Camp Marion.

Article 37 seeks $2,500 to establish a Senior Center Committee and do a feasibility study.

Articles 38 and 39 are housekeeping articles to make some administrative changes in the "Privilege Fee" by-law and to amend the bylaw for the posting of warrants. The law was that the warrant had to be posted in the Post Office in Sutton which was formerly in Wilkinsonville. When the Post Office moved, there was no longer any place to post the warrant in Wilkinsonville. Now the Warrant will be posted in the community room at the Housing for the Elderly site.

Article 40 will require that house numbers be visible from the street with numbers that are assigned by the Board of Assessors. This is in conjunction with implementing 911 service.

Article 41 will bring the zoning by-laws for day care centers up to state laws which say that laws cannot be made to prohibit or restrict day care centers. Present by-laws say that day care centers are allowed only by special permit.

Article 42 would allocate $35,000 for FY '94 evaluations.

Article 43 is for a drainage easement on Leland Hill Road.

Article 44 seeks an amendment to the Charter which would make Cemetery Commissioners appointed by the Selectmen rather than elected.

The world according to us.

It's a small place, our world.
It's made up of nearby communities and farms and neighbors we know by name.
Our headquarters are here. All our business is here.
And our interests and loyalties are here.
We're an independent community bank — and we have one purpose: to take care of our small world.
Your deposits with us are invested locally — in loans to your neighbors and communities. They're not invested somewhere else — for somebody else's benefit.
This area is our world, and you and your neighbors are the only people in it.
That makes us unworldly, doesn't it?
You bet it does.

Detective Sergeant Lincoln Barton of the Millbury Police Department is cautioning residents that housebreaks are on the increase in the area.

The Worcester County B&E Task Force, a county-wide task force which includes many area towns, including Millbury, has been investigating a series of housebreaks in area communities. "There have been 20-25 housebreaks in the last few weeks in Worcester county communities," Barton said, many of them believed to be the work of the same group of individuals. In Millbury alone, there have been two daytime breaks, four nighttime, and three daytime attempts.

As recently as last Saturday, the Task Force recovered stolen property in Worcester and the towns of Webster and Auburn. With the exception of a sawed-off shotgun, the back room of the Millbury Police Department, where the stolen goods are being stored, looks likes a family's dream Christmas: microwaves, tv's, stereos, skis, speakers, a mountain bike, jewelry, power tools, hand tools, cd's, a keyboard, and camera equipment. No one has been charged with the thefts as yet.

Because of the recent increase in housebreaks, Barton has issued the following tips:

1. If you have an alarm, don't forget to set it! "Some breaks occurred in homes where the alarms weren't set," he said. "What this group is doing is taking electric meters off houses in the hope this deactivates the alarm. It doesn't, as most have battery backups."

2. If you see a suspicious car in your yard or your neighbor's yard, notify the police immediately. "Don't think you're bothering your police department," Barton said, "it's our job."

3. Report ANYTHING suspicious - dogs barking, doors closing, cars slowing down. "Take a look," Barton said, "the worse that can happen is your neighbor won't speak to you tomorrow."

Barton said it's time people started looking out for each other again, "neighbors watching out for neighbors, that old community cooperation."

Barton described two of the common scenarios they have seen with recent breaks: "These people are coming up to your door, knocking, and if no one answers, they go in. If someone answers, they ask for directions. There is also a group claiming to be water, gas, or electric inspectors; they work in two's. They say there's a problem with a meter, one goes with you downstairs while the other goes through the house and walks away with whatever he can find in five minutes. All inspectors should carry legitimate identification," he cautioned. "Any legitimate worker will not mind showing his identification. I think that's a precaution we need to take. With the economy the way it is," Barton said, "people are going to try to do what they have to do. Help us help you. Give us the information."
